Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 14th September 1892.

No. 4377-84—R. 634-92, DATED BANGALORE, 14TH SEPTEMBER 1892.

ORDER.—Under Section 77 of the Land Revenue Code, it is competent for any co-occupant, co-holder, co-sharer, tenant, mortgagee or other person interested in the continuance of any occupancy or alienated holding, to pay, on behalf of the registered occupant or registered holder, all sums due on account of Land-revenue and save the estate from forfeiture and sale for arrears of revenue. Such persons are therefore fairly entitled to notice before the tenure is forfeited and sold, provided they get their names entered in the Revenue records. Government therefore resolve that a register to be called the "Register for special Notices" in the accompanying form be opened for the purpose in each Taluk Cutcherry and that when any such persons, including those who lend money on the hypothecation of the land, request that their names be noted in the said Register, with a view to being served with notices when the occupancy rights of such lands are in danger of being forfeited and sold, their names be registered accordingly and the same communicated to the Shanbhog in view to a note thereof being made in the Khaté Register. The Shanbhog's note shall be made in the following manner:— "For No. 4 land, Timmegauda is entitled to special notice as per order, dated No. ". Notice of every intended forfeiture and sale of the land for arrears of Revenue should be given to the parties entered in the special Register. It must, however, be understood that the person whose name has been so noted in the Register will be entitled to such notice only during 5 years next succeeding the date of registry, and he must renew his application at the end of every such term of 5 years, if he wishes the privilege to be continued. The consent of the registered khatedar is not necessary for the names of the interested parties being specially noted in the khate, as such notation can create no rights or obligation of any kind. It will merely enable the local Revenue authorities to give them notice of default by the registered holder and thus to afford them an opportunity of paying on behalf of the registered holder and thereby saving the land from sale for arrears of Revenue.

2. Full publicity should be given to this order.

T. ANANDA ROW,
Chief Secretary.
